

Submitting for Insurance Reimbursement

In many instances it is possible to submit the cost of Therapeutic Comics Prescription Exercise for the Stability Ball Guide to insurance carriers for reimbursement. The submission form, codes and rules vary depending upon insurance carrier, and reimbursement is not available from all carriers.

In addition, the amount of reimbursement varies among those carriers that will reimburse, and could be contingent upon whether or not you are providing the Guide in association with actually performing the exercises in the office after appropriate testing.

Below are codes and guidelines in order to help you in the submission process:
